

Daily Tours – Quilotoa Lagoon

Introduction

Considered one of the most beautiful lagoons in the world, the Quilotoa Lagoon is located on the crater of a volcano with the same name. It stands out for its emerald green color, a color attributed to the strong mineralization it has inside. During your trip, you can observe the way of life of the inhabitants of Andes, their crafts, culture, music, traditions. You can also admire the Toachi Canyon and take a walk around the banks of the lagoon. Also, have the opportunity to practice kayaking, as an additional activity. All the day you will be accompanied by your guide, who provides you a full explanation about the local flora and fauna.
