

Daily Tours – Middle of the World

Introduction

The Middle of the World, crossed by the equatorial line which joins the northern hemisphere with the southern hemisphere, is a place that has treasures of art, architecture and science. Your first point to visit includes a green and mountainous landscape corresponding to the Pululahua Geobotanical Reserve, here you can visit an inhabited crater and do a hike inside. Next, you visit the Intiñan museum for learning about the culture of many indigenous towns of Ecuador. Later, you get the main attraction of the day, the Middle of the World, where you have the opportunity to stand un in two hemispheres at the same time, visit its internal museums and walk through the equatorial line.
