Full Itinerary

Introduction

With this program you know the iconic places of the province of Manabi. Not only you have time to lie on the sand and enjoy the sun, you can also visit sites of cultural and natural interests. You have a stop in Montecristi, famous for its toquilla straw hats and for being the birthplace of Eloy Alfaro, one of the most popular presidents in the history of Ecuador. With your visit to the Isla de la Plata your mind will be transported to the Galapagos Islands, while Agua Blanca will surprise you with vestiges of the most powerful cultures that led the area.

Day 1: Quito - Manta

Your trip departs from Quito at 7:00, to the province of Manabi. On the way, you have a stop in Santo Domingo de los Colorados, to take a look of the city and shooting the landscape. Upon entering Manabi, the first stop is Rocafuerte, where lunch will be served. This place is famous for preparing the best candies, so you also have a time to visit the small shops of these artisan sweets. When you arrive in Manta, immediately be transferred to your selected hotel for check-in. In the afternoon, you will move to Montecristi, for visiting Ciudad Alfaro. On the way, you can see the artisans making the famous toquilla straw hats, known as "Panama Hats". Finally, you will return to Manta for walking around its port and tourist area or, if you prefer, take advantage of the hotel facilities. (Meals included: Lunch and dinner)
