Full Itinerary

Introduction

The meeting point for this adventure is Quito city. Then you will be transferred to the center of Highland Region. You can see and touch the glacier of the biggest active volcano of Ecuador, located to 5200 m.a.s.l. In addition you can admire an emerald green lagoon located above the crater of a volcano, practice extreme sports, take pictures on the Swing at the End of the World, do a hike to one of the most beautiful waterfalls of Ecuador and finish your trip relaxing with hot springs in middle of Andean landscapes

Day 1: Cotopaxi National Park - Quilotoa

Your trip departs from Quito, at 07h00, to the Cotopaxi National Park. When you arrive to this natural reserve, your accompanying guide gives you some indications before your ascent to the Jose Rivas Refuge, located to 4864 m.a.s.l. On this site, you can taste a hot chocolate, while admiring the landscape. If the physical and climatic conditions allow it, you will ascend until the glacier, located at 5000 masl. Once you have enjoyed taking photographs at this point, you will begin the descent towards the Limpiopungo Lagoon, where your guide explains you about the flora and fauna of the zone. After you have lunch, visit the art gallery in Tigua and you have some time for shooting the Canyon of Toachi River from its viewpoint. Finally, when you arrive to Quilotoa, you can stay at the viewpoint for a few minutes before to start the descent towards the lagoon. Your accommodation is in this zone. (Meals included: Lunch and dinner)
